The developer console at the bottom shows a list of API requests. The selected request is "GetDicUnitType?BrunchCode=1", which returned a 500 status code with the following response:

{entity: null, status: -1,...}
entity: null message: "The entity type 'DdGrpUnitDept' requires a primary key to be defined."
status: -1
```
